ADD:

1.f Penalties for contact between boats.

(a) When the umpires observe or can verify a report of “hard” contact (defined as hulls, rudders, spars or rigging against another boats hull, rudders, spars or rigging), between boats they will impose a two-point penalty on the boat that broke a rule in the incident and a one-point penalty on the other boat without a hearing. The penalty on the other boat may be waived.

(b) When there is contact that causes damage, the umpires may impose further penalties on either one or both boats.
